

Change of Address Checklist

Everyone you need to notify of your new address when you move, organized so nothing slips through.

Postal & Mail

- Submit an official mail forwarding request with the postal service
- Set the start date a day or two before your move
- Update your address with any package lockers or P.O. box
- Tell regular senders, such as relatives and clubs, your new address

Government & Legal

- Update your driver's license and state ID
 - Change the address on your vehicle registration
 - Update your voter registration
 - Notify the tax authority of your new address
 - Update any benefits, pension or social security records
- Some agencies require proof of your new address, so have a utility bill or lease ready

Banks & Finances

- Update your address with every bank and checking account
- Change the billing address on all credit and debit cards
- Notify any loan, mortgage or lender accounts
- Update investment, retirement and brokerage accounts
- Tell payment apps and online wallets your new address

Insurance

- Update or transfer your home or renters insurance
- Notify your auto insurer — premiums can change by location
- Update health, life and any other policies
- Confirm coverage starts at the new address on move day

Work, Utilities & Services

- Give your employer or HR your new address for payroll and tax forms
- Set up or transfer electricity, gas and water accounts
- Transfer internet, cable and phone service
- Update trash and recycling service if billed separately

Subscriptions & Deliveries

- Update online shopping accounts and saved addresses
- Change the address on meal kits and recurring deliveries
- Update streaming, magazine and box subscriptions
- Notify loyalty programs and memberships

Medical & Personal

- Update your doctor, dentist and any specialists
- Transfer prescriptions to a pharmacy near the new home
- Update your veterinarian and pet microchip registry

Notify your child's school and update records